Dear Friends,

As the holiday season quickly approaches, community supporters are generously sharing what they can to provide crucial resources to women in need. You can help women empower themselves by giving in-kind goods, donating to support our programming, or sharing your time directly as a volunteer. Your help can be the difference for a woman this winter - thank you!

New Art Therapy Group: A Close-Knit Community

Clients are enjoying a new Art Therapy group, where women come together to knit, crochet, and sew. With the guidance of our Art Therapist and the help of a dedicated volunteer, Grace Radkins, this group offers the practical benefits of sewing, allowing women to repair clothing and make new warm items for themselves and their loved ones.

Art Therapist Shan Ru Lin explains that the group has great therapeutic benefits as well, saying "Many clients have bonded over the process of working with yarn," teaching one another, creating custom pieces, experiencing success, and building community.

In-Kind In Demand: Yarn

Since the knitting group has been so popular, our clients are in need of more yarn. Please help by donating new or used yarn of any material, any size, and any color.

Don’t forget you can use Sarah’s Circle’s Amazon Wish List and help a woman with just a few clicks (please just leave us a note so we can say thanks)!

You can also see our website for a full list of needed items. If you have any questions or would like to donate, please contact Dakota Chisholm at dchisholm@sarahs-circle.org.

Volunteer Spotlight: Capital One Workshop Leaders

Over the past few months, volunteers Paula Alcaraz and Linda Gordillo from Capital One’s Southport Café have been leading financial literacy workshops at Sarah’s Circle’s Interim Housing Program.

The workshop has been very beneficial for clients, reviewing relevant topics like credit scores, money management basics, and budgeting tools. Paula and Linda are also generously taking their service to the next level, providing and serving dinner at the end of this month, as well as upgrading some items at the Interim Housing facility.

Thank you to our friends from Capital One for this amazing volunteer support!
